What is on offer from GHC this Autumn...?

Tailored coach development

The aim is to deliver maximum impact:

- Relevant content
- Convenient locations
- Flexible times
- Sharing existing good practice

What is on offer from GHC this Autumn...?

September and October

15 sessions in 60 minutes...ideas for practice design and gameplay for fun, engaging, challenging and competitive hockey sessions.

16/17/18th September

Teaching the basics...an A to Z of hitting, pushing, slap hitting, flicking tackling and marking. Great for assistant and lead coaches, particularly U8, U10, U12. Covers what to coach when, Key points for different skills and some games and activities that help develop them. 24/25th September at 7pm

Incorporating goalkeepers...run by Tom Millington. Ideas for incorporating goalkeepers into warm ups, training sessions and match play. And, a short guide to Key goalkeeping skills and when to use them. Date...tba.

11-side tactics

For lead coaches as well as assistant coaches who are interested. A chance to discuss different ways to organise a team effectively. Including Pressing, outletting and team defence as well as the training sessions that help develop players into effective decision makers on the pitch. Sunday 8th October

November and December

- Working as an assistant coach
- Individual defence
- Goalscoring and circle play
- Developing creative and skillful players
- Short corner training. Developing skills, incorporating practices into sessions design

Your views are hugely important as is the time that you put into Guildford Hockey Club.

My aim is to make sure that Guildford Hockey club has more, better and happier hockey coaches that are well prepared, confident and able to deliver a great experience for junior players of all ages and all abilities.

Whatever your background, experience and aspirations I really look forward to working with you in the future.

Dan Fox
Director of Junior Coaching.
